First Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

appealing eligibility for state developmental disability services. In addition to providing advocacy services for families who use third party funding or use our sliding fee scale, Bright Horizons staff also served as surrogate parents as prescribed under IDEA, for 50 children in foster care with disabilities in need of evaluation for, or provision of, special education services. Surrogate services are pro bono. Our benefits volunteer helped 3 people apply for SSI this year. We do not charge for SSI related advocacy, consistent with SSA guidelines and practices of benefits attorneys. The difference between our practice and that of attorneys is that we do not charge a percentage of benefits awarded.
